senior honors

The DAR good citizenship award was given to Cynthia Weeks and Ronald Beal. This award is based on senior vote, scholastic standing, good character, and school participation.

Cindy is co-editor of the MAROON AND GOLD and a member of Quill and Scroll. She has been active in activities including secretary of sophomore and senior class, Girl's Club, AFS, GAA, and was initiated into the National Honor Society. She was chosen 1970 Homecoming Queen.

Ron is the President of SBA, and was freshman class president. During his four years he has been very active in sports. He was co-captain of the football team and was elected to the All-State and All-Conference teams, and was most valuable player for the wrestling team. Ron was initiated into the National Honor Society.

Barbara Stansell, Cindy Weeks, Ron Beal, and Bob Cowan were participants in the Presidential Classrooms for Young Americans program in Washington, D.C. Each of them will spend one week during March as a part of this program which is designed to give high school seniors from all over the country a better understanding of the operations of government. The students will be involved in seminars and hear speakers from many different aspects of the government.

Ellen,
To a very sweet
girl whom I am very happy to met. Thanks for just being around and smiling. Keep smiling and everyone will smile with
you. Good luck in your future years. Thanks again.

Ellen,
To a fellow fellow. Well, what can I say? This year has been lots of fun, especially the ban trip. I'll never forget all the beautiful scenery in Canada! Hope to see you lots this summer at the lake. Thanks for all the help in Geometry!

Ellen,
So a great girl, who wins the curves in English class. Good luck in your next two years
of M. H. S., not that you'll need it. I'll see ya next year when
we're big juniors.

Ellen,
Remember our great
band trip and your
great times in our
other classes. Well
we made it thro
our soph. year. Which means we have two years left. Believe it or not. Be real good.
See ya next year and
City Band. Good
luck with the Mr.
Good Guy, who ever he is. (shoemaker)

Ellen,
You're a great
person. I really like
you. Remember all
the fun on the band trip?
Stay the same.
Good luck please.

Ellen,
Only 26 on a
Mrs. Shunick Caesar test?
Remarkable! We'll probably have some classes together next year (you'll undoubtedly show me up!), so stay out of trouble. Anytime you want guitar lessons, you know who to call!
Either be good, or have fun, —
Lester

This summer, stay nice & be good.

Ellen,
We've had a
lot of fun this year, maybe next year I'll be in the band.
Then we'll have a blast! It looks like I might get my license before you all over. In fact I wouldn't be surprised if you never got it with the luck you've been having.
(oops, maybe I shouldn't have said that, it might come true) Well, anyway, best of luck and always stay the brains/beautiful, tall, wonderful kid you are!

Ellen,
Good luck
in the years to
come at M.H.S.
Remember the Band trip.

Ellen,
To a really
sweet classmate (classmate). One of a kind
I know you'll go far in your life. That is true. Enjoy M.H.S., it will be lots of fun in the future
